

REMEMBRANCE DAY CEREMONY CAMP HILL 2016

NURSING HISTORY NOVA SCOTIA SOCIETY

The Nursing History Nova Scotia Society representatives attended the Remembrance Day Ceremony at Camp Hill Hospital, Veterans' Memorial building, November 11, 2016.

Attending were (LT.-RT.) Mary Hope, Edith Ward, Joyce Baxter, Gloria Stephens and Myrna Burton.

The ceremony was opened with the marching in of the colours as the bag pipes were playing and this was followed by the singing of O Canada. The enormous crowd sang with pride along with the many veterans. The Last Post was performed by Sgt. Patricia Foley, followed by the moment of silence. The Lament was by Stacey Adamson and the Act of Remembrance by Wendall Crowell, Royal Canadian Legion- zone 14. The Reveille was performed again by Sgt. Patricia Foley. The participants then sang the hymn Abide With Me followed by a prayer by Rev. Gary Myatt. Heather White, Camp Hill Veterans' Services, then gave 'heart warming' remarks about the veterans and those now in service for our country. At this point the Camp Hill

Veterans laid wreaths: Army by Margaret Guildford; Navy by Gerald Leslie; Air Force by Michael Kelly and Merchant Navy by Harold McNutt. This was followed by the laying of four official wreaths and then all other organizations were invited to lay their wreaths. It was at this time our wreath was placed in memory of nurses who served. The ceremony was concluded by the singing of the hymn O God Our Help in Ages Past, the Benediction by Rev. Gary Myatt and God Save the Queen.
